

ARMY PUBLIC SCHOOL BARRACKPORE OCCASIONS ANNUAL CARNIVAL AND EXHIBITION '2024

Army Public School Barrackpore signalled the Annual Carnival and Exhibition on 30 October 2024 . The gracious presence of the dignitaries enhanced the glitz of the event.

The carnival pronounced jollity for the entire Army Public School Barrackpore community – the staff, the students , the parents and other beneficiaries. From the meticulously crafted rangoli designs to the delights of the food stalls with culinary items, every corner of the premises radiated festive cheer. Diyas , candles, paintings, showpieces , beautiful artefacts, apparels created by the young artists and sculptors under the able guidance of their mentors, truly exhibited a pristine collaboration and camaraderie. The students of Classes XI and XII organized sumptuous food stalls which showcased their entrepreneurship and culinary skills. The luminaries appreciated their dexterity and entrepreneurship.

The cultural extravaganza which comprised dance , skit and musical renditions unfolded a combination of solo and group performances by the students of Balvatika to Class XII , thus creating a visual feast of cultural diversity. Additionally, students from one of the schools under Vidyanjali Project- Ishwar Chandra Vidhya Sagar Primary School , also performed in the cultural fiesta with equal zeal and enthusiasm.

In sync with the theme 'Call of Humanism' and in the wake of promoting an ethical undercurrent in the milieu, the exhibition projected spectacular events of Fashion Show, Puppet Show and role models of social reformers like Raja Ram Mohan Roy and Mother Teresa to name a few, which were enacted by the students vis-a-vis thought - provoking and aesthetically designed exhibits that held mirror to the intellectual acumen of the learners.

The Annual Carnival and Exhibition fostered the virtues of communal harmony, human welfare, fellow feeling and brotherhood through shared festivities. To conclude, the celebration was a resounding success that weaved together cultural and moral ethos, creativity and a spirit of unity among all and sundry.
