

CELEBRATION OF INNOCENCE AND LAUGHTER

On 14th November 2024, Army Public School Barrackpore organised a lively Children's Day celebration to honour and entertain its students. The teachers surprised the students with a series of entertaining performances in the assembly, sparking laughter and cheers. The day was marked by a variety of engaging activities tailored to different age groups.

Army Public School, Barrackpore fraternity conveys deepest appreciation and gratitude to the entire team of Central Bureau of Communication for helping in the observance of Children's Day Celebration.

Students enjoyed a mesmerizing magic show, where they witnessed exciting tricks and illusions that captivated their attention and filled the air with applause and laughter.

Meanwhile, the Balvatika (Pre-primary section), along with students from Classes 1 and 2, were treated to a delightful puppet show. The colourful puppets and entertaining storyline kept the tiny tots thoroughly entertained and giggling throughout the performance.

After the show, all students gathered together to receive specially prepared goodie bags adding an extra layer of excitement to the celebration. Each goodie bag was thoughtfully curated with gifts that the children could enjoy, making them feel cherished on this special day dedicated to them. The school ensured a memorable Children's Day by combining entertainment and a sense of togetherness, creating a joyful atmosphere for all students to remember.
